County Administrative Code

Let the record reflect that each Magistrate was given a copy of the Bracken County Administrative Code with all amendments attached. They will review and bring all changes to the meeting in June 2011 designated to this action.

No Discussion.

No Action.

Flex Funds/Road Maintenance

Discussion was held regarding funds available for road paving and maintenance. Stacey Florer, Road Supervisor discussed upcoming FEMA projects with the court, as well as roads that are in great need of maintenance. Judge Bush asked that all magistrates submit a list of roads in their precinct that needs maintenance. They will then be prioritized by need.

Discussion only, No Action Taken

Courthouse Roof

Judge Bush advised that he has several companies looking at the roof to put in estimates and suggested maintenance and repair. Those will be submitted to the court as soon as they are all received.

Discussion only, No Action Taken

Speed Limits on County Roads

Discussion was held regarding the Ordinance adopted in 2011 and each magistrate will make submissions for roads in their precinct that need to have lower speed limits. At that time the County Road Supervisor, Stacey Florer will review the roads and make recommendations to the court.

Discussion only, No Action Taken.

Redistricting and Options

Judge Bush advised that upon completion of the 2010 Census a committee will be appointed of 3 citizens and the County Clerk to do redistricting. This will have a deadline in May 2011. Should the court want to make any changes to the number of districts and magistrates, now would be the time to consider that option.

Discussion Only, No Action Taken.

Upon motion of John Corlis, seconded by Doug Smith that the March 2, 2011 special meeting of the Bracken County Fiscal Court be adjourned.

Vote being unanimous.
